

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

All practice staff are trained specifically in recognizing needs and helping vulnerable groups, in particular those referenced in the Equality Act 2010.

This is mandatory training completed by all new staff during their induction period, and all existing staff at least every three years.

Our equality and diversity policy, along with our staff handbook, are updated yearly to ensure they are in line with the most recent legislation and best practice recommendations.

